Numb. 5381

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 12. to Tuesday November 15. 1715.

St. James's November 14. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor and States of the Iſland of Guernſey; preſented to his Majeſty by Lieutenant-General Harvey, Governor of the ſaid Iſland, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

An humble Addreſs of the States of the Iſland of Jerſey; preſented to his Majeſty by General Lumley, Governor of the ſaid Iſland, and accompanied by ſeveral Gentlemen of the ſaid Iſland, who all had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

An humble Addreſs of the Freeholders and others the Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton in the County of Devon; preſented to his Majeſty by —— Tuckfield, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lincoln.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Bruſſels, Nov 13. On the 9th Inſtant at Night Mr. Cadogan arrived here from Antwerp. On the 10th that Miniſter and M. Vandenberg had a Conference, to which Mr. Leathes was admitted in the Quality of his Britannick Majeſty's Secretary. On the 11th they ſettled the Routes of all the Dutch Regiments ordered for Great Britain, from their reſpective Quarters to Ghent, where Bylanders are ready to carry them to Oſtend. Some unexpected Incidents have retarded thoſe Troops longer than was at firſt imagined; but they are now all actually on the March. Five Battalions will be imbarked by the 18th Inſtant, and ſail with the firſt fair Wind afterwards for the Humber; the other 5 Regiments of Foot, and one of diſmounted Dragoons, cannot well be at Oſtend ſooner than the 20th, but the Shipping and all other Neceſſaries for their Reception being ready, they will ſail immediately after, Wind and Weather permitting, for the Thames; and they will be followed by the Royal Regiment of Ireland, which is now in the Caſtle of Ghent, where 100 Men of that Battalion will be left till the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Barrier-Treaty. Yeſterday the abovenamed Miniſters and Secretary had a Conference with the Councils of State and Finances of theſe Provinces, and adjuſted all Points relating to Commerce. Late laſt Night Mr. Cadogan ſet out for Antwerp, and was followed by Mr. Leathes this Evening. Captain Bagnal, an Iriſh Papiſt, late of D'Avila's Regiment, having deſerted his Imperial Majeſty's Service, and abandoned his Company, ſome Weeks before the Diſcovery of the Pretender's Deſign of invading Great Britain; and the ſaid Captain having gone into England, and from thence into France with James Butler, and having lately wrote from Paris to his Servant in this Town to carry his Equipage to London, where he aſſures his Servant in the ſaid Letter he would meet him in a very little Time; the Miniſters of the two Maritime Potentates have thought fit to diſpoſe of the Company which was become vacant by the ſaid Bagnal's Deſertion. Letters from Ghent ſay Colonel Leathes Commandant of that Place, has ſtopt the Lord Clermont Son to Lord Middleton, and one Gordon Son to the Pretender's Banker at Paris.

Antwerp, Nov 18. The Barrier Treaty being brought to a happy Concluſion, was ſigned here on the 16th Inſtant by the Imperial, Britiſh and Dutch Miniſters. By this Treaty care has been taken to ſettle the Trade of the Subjects of Great Britain to the Spaniſh Netherlands on a very advantagious Foot, parnicularly with reſpect to the Woollen Manufactures, and alſo to Spirits diſtilled from Corn. Yeſterday Mr. Cadogan ſet out for Oſtend, where the Troops ordered to Great Britain are to paſs before him in Review, and to take an Oath of Fidelity to his Majeſty King George: Five Battalions are to imbark this Day for the Humber, as will the reſt for the Thames by the 20th. Two Britiſh Men of War lye now ready in the Road of Oſtend, to take the Tranſports under their Convoy. Count Kinigſegg went from hence Yeſterday Morning for Bruſſels; his Excellency deſigns to return to this Place in four or five Days, in order to concert Meaſures with the States Deputies for the punctual Execution of the Treaty of Barrier, as ſoon as the Ratifications are exchanged, which is to be in ſix Weeks or ſooner if poſſible.

From the Camp at Sterling, Nov. 10. This Morning the Duke of Argyll received Intelligence, that the Earl of Mar with the Rebels is come from Perth to Achterairder, and that 'tis reported among them they are to advance. The three Regiments left at Glaſgow and Kilſyth will join us to Morrow Noon: And then his Grace deſigns to paſs the River, in order to meet the Rebels and attack them. Of the Rebels who paſſed the Fryth, and afterwards ſeparated from their Body in the South, 400 have been taken Priſoners.

Exeter, Nov. 8. The Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of this Ancient and Loyal Corporation in Common Council aſſembled, have unanimouſly elected his Royal Highneſs George Prince of Wales Lord High Steward of this City of Exeter.

Whitehall, Nov. 14. On the 12th Inſtant in the Evening arrived Captain Williamſon, Aid de Camp to Lieutenant General Cadogan, with the Treaty of Barrier ſigned at Antwerp on the 5th Inſtant, O. S.

St. James's, Nov. 14. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Charles Earl of Tankerville to be Warden, Chief Juſtice, and Juſtice in Eyre of all his Majeſty's Foreſts, Chaces, Parks and Warrens on this ſide of Trent.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Biſhop of Lincoln to be Lord Almoner in the room of the Biſhop of Briſtol.

Whitehall, Nov. 14. 1715.

Whereas one Oliverſon, a little Man, Servant of Mr. Cholmeley of Tanfield-Court in the Temple, ſtands charged by Information upon Oath with High Treaſon;